FIGHTING CANCER... WITH MANICURES!

Giuliana Rancic is using her beauty wits to fight back against cancer.

We always knew Giuliana Rancic was a fighter. The Fashion Police star and E! News host was recently diagnosed with early stage breast cancer, and she's vowed to fight the disease. But Rancic is doing more than just fight her own battle against breast cancer; she's giving back to the cause in a fun way.

Rancic's Fab Fit Fun has partnered with Nail Files star Katie Cazorla to offer "Mani-Cure for Breast Cancer," a fundraising initiative that will benefit Rancic's own breast cancer awareness charity, Bright Pink. The Nail Files star is donating 50 percent of proceeds from her clients' mani-cures (which will feature light pink nail polish with the official Breast Cancer Awareness pink ribbon logo printed on one nail on each hand) to Bright Pink.

Manicures and charity... sounds pretty great to us!
