Beauty Tips for Summer!

Infinium is a soft hairspray that adds body and bounce without the stiffness, like the Victoria's Secret models. If you're looking for softness, movement and control, you have to try Infinium.

Long summer days can lead to long summer nights, often with little time in-between. Keep your make-up for the evening light and carefree by sweeping on Repêchage Natural Finish Pressed Powder, Repêchage Conditioning Mascara, and finishing with Repêchage Conditioning Lip Gloss in Rockstar to give the look a flirty touch.

Dress up your skin with a shimmering, gold highlighter. Using fingertips, apply to the top of cheek bones, center of the lids, or anywhere you want to add a little sparkle. Gold (and any metallic shade) is neutral and gorgeous on all skin tones. It's the perfect lone product for bare summer skin.

I love using my Senna Cosmetics Barely Base Sheer Mineral Makeup for summer. It protects the skin with antioxidants and SPF20. The sheer slightly radiant finish looks natural even in daylight. Finish your look with Lip Lacquer and a touch of bronzer to define cheekbones.

Cazorla is quick to share the secrets of her success. "If you have an absolute passion for something and think you can change it and do it better than you have something. If the people see your passion then it will read." What can we expect from the show? "This is true reality. It's a real business with real people who are all different. Expect good times, bad times, crying and laughing. It's salon drama at its finest with lots of glitter, glam and of course, celebrities."

Coral is hot for the summer and so is orange. But, you have to watch your tones. Pinky tones may make you look too pasty. You want to go with a richer tone. It's like following a make-up wheel.

Neons are another thing for the summer that are hot. Tom Bachik (Chanel's Nail Artist) has a cool line right now.

Men notice your nails. The number one thing men ALWAYS like is red nail polish.
