

TV GUIDE
NETWORK

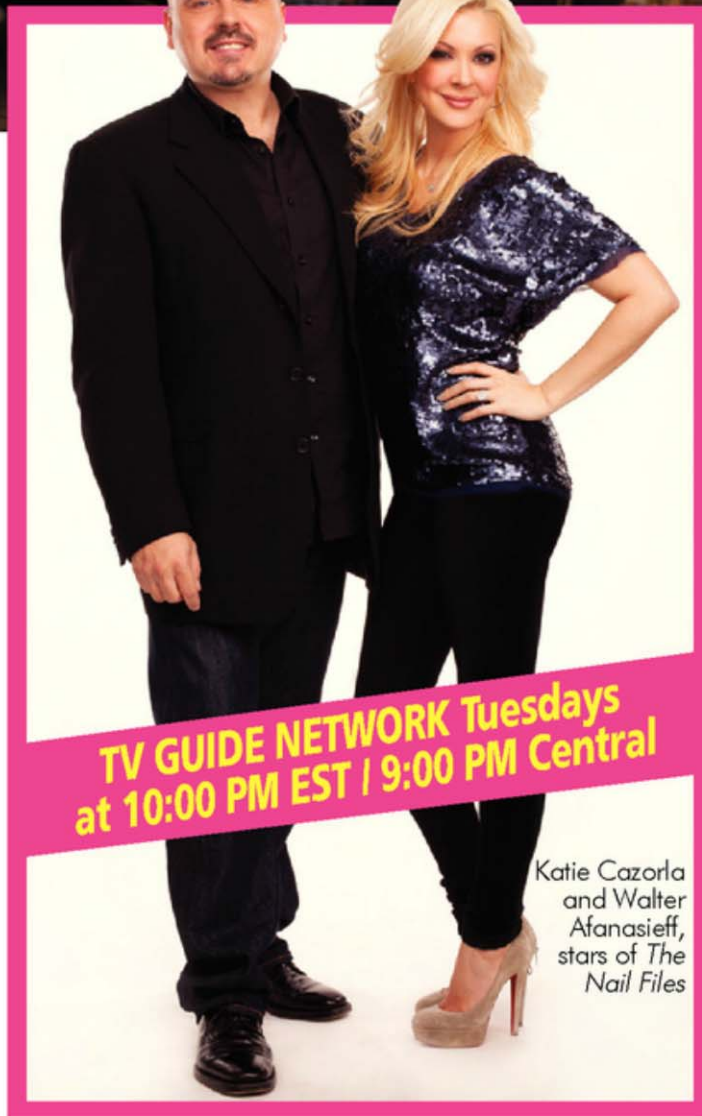

Katie Cazorla Gets Show

The Nail Files

Katie Cazorla is the owner of celebrity favorite, The Painted Nail, a nail salon located in Los Angeles, CA. She's also about to become a celebrity in her own right. Katie is the star of TV Guide Network's new reality show, Nail Files. Look out, because this docu-soap was created and produced by SallyAnn Salsano, who found mega-success with MTV's Jersey Shore. BE! chatted with the charming 32-year-old entrepreneur and we had no idea we'd be sold so quickly on glitter polish and neon tips. So paint on your coolest polish and set your DVR's for the premiere on Tuesday, June 21 at 10pm/9pm central, even if it's just for the tips. Get it?

The Painted Nail has been open for two years and as Katie proudly puts it, "it looks like a high-end salon but our prices don't reflect that." The price points are modest; $20 for a manicure and $30 for a pedicure. But don't let the cost fool you. This is not your typical corner mani/pedi joint. Cazorla points out, "until recently, nail salons have been junky like gas stations. They pop up all over. There is no love for it." She noticed the lack of care and thought that people wanted a better experience. She wanted a better experience. She hated being rushed. She noticed that the tubs weren't being cleaned properly. She wanted to sink into her chair, hang out, have a good time and relax in a true spa experience. So, instead of complaining about it, she created exactly what she wanted. And people clearly are enjoying her point of view. You never know who may be getting filed to your left. Katie's clients include Kimora Lee, Vanessa Hudgens, Ashley Tisdale, Sarah Chalke, Lisa Rinna, Debbie Gibson, the girls from Jersey Shore and the always fabulous Vanessa Williams.

—continued on page 31

TV GUIDE NETWORK Tuesdays
at 10:00 PM EST | 9:00 PM Central

Katie Cazorla and Walter AfanasiEFF, stars of The Nail Files

Photo courtesy of TV Guide Network